

April 8, 2022

IINO Kaiun Kaisha, Ltd.

Interview with IINO President by THE WORLDFOLIO

Hiromi Tosha, President and Representative Director of IINO Kaiun Kaisha, Ltd. (IINO), was interviewed by "The Worldfolio*", a UK-based news agency, and the interview was posted on their website. In the article, he mentions various risks and opportunities the shipping industry is facing, as well as the global expansion of our business and our efforts toward decarbonization.

<The Worldfolio (External link)>

<http://www.theworldfolio.com/interviews/the-international-shipping-industry-has-made-clean-fuel-priority/5190/>

Screen shot of the article

Hiromi Tosha (center) and reporters from The Worldfolio

An excerpt of this interview and an introduction to our business will be published later in Newsweek International (print edition) and on the Newsweek.com website.

One of the priority enhancement measures in the mid-term management plan, "Be Unique and Innovative: The Next Stage - Toward 2030 -", is to "Further promote global business". IINO will continue to make further efforts to attract the attention of not only in Japan but also to the world.

*About the Worldfolio, a U.K.-based news agency

The Worldfolio is a British news agency specializing in the production of social and economic reports. In addition to publishing articles on its website (<http://www.theworldfolio.com/>), the company provides articles to major media outlets around the world, including Newsweek, TIME, Forbes Asia, and CBN Weekly.

Contact:

Stakeholder Relations Department

Phone: +81-3-6273-3069

Inquiry Form: <https://www.iino.co.jp/kaiun/english/contact/form.php>

End